MRS. POMECRANATE.

Husband was suffering from
Inflammation of the eyes, and
One of the children, mentally
Weak, was very ill ; so they Came into hospital, and, as
We then had no private Wards, the father come into
The male and the mother and
Child into the female ward.
Their hearts were softened
Towards the Truth, and she
Who had been formerly very
Devout in her worship of the
Idols, now became still more
Devout in her worship of the
Saviour, so that she is known in the whole district round for her piety.
One of her sons, a fine lad, is an assistant in the hospital.

As we have been round seeing the cases of bodily sickness, so we Might visit each ward and pick out trophies of God's grace; but we can Only now mention one or two. Take, first, this woman from the paying Wards ; admitted for cancer of the breast, all I could offer her being an
